

The map shows Virginia divided into eight regions, each labeled with a Roman numeral and a color. The regions are: Region I (orange, north), Region II (brown, northeast), Region III (purple, east), Region IV (yellow, south), Region V (green, west), Region VI (blue, southwest), Region VII (red, west), and Region VIII (dark blue, south). Major cities like Richmond, Alexandria, and Norfolk are marked.